Re: United States v. Charlene Marant
07 Cr. 160 (JGK)

Southern District of New York
John J. Byrnes
Attorney-in-Charge

July 16, 2007

APPLICATION GRANTED
SO ORDERED

John G. Koeltl, U.S.D.J.

Dear Judge Koeltl:

I write on behalf of my client, Charlene Marant, to respectfully request that the Court modify her bail conditions. Most recently, on May 17, 2007, Your Honor imposed the following modified bail conditions:

$200,000 personal recognizance bond cosigned by one financially responsible person; confined to home incarceration with electric monitoring; strict pretrial supervision; surrender all travel documents; no further applications for travel; travel limited to EDNY & SDNY.

Ms. Marant has been out on bail on home incarceration with electronic monitoring for over a month. She has recently gained employment as a copy editor proofreading legal and medical documents and works on very short notice for overnight shifts. Ms. Marant is also currently in the process of reviewing the extensive discovery in her case, and all parties are to appear again before Your Honor on September 14, 2007.

At this time, I request that Your Honor remove the home incarceration and electronic monitoring conditions of her bail with all other conditions unchanged, including strict pretrial supervision.

I have spoken with Assistant United States Attorney William Harrington on behalf of the government and received his consent to this application. I understand Mr. Harrington spoke to Ms. Marant's Pretrial Officer, Franco Furelli, and that he consents to this request as well.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Philip L. Weinstein
